

EMILIA ROMAGNA

Consistent quality and value for money, the most commonly known grapes are Sangiovese and Trebbiano. While Emilia-Romana might not have the credentials of the more famous wine producing areas of Italy there is still great quality to be found and competitive pricing.

TERRE PASSERI

The main grapes are Sangiovese for the reds and Trebbiano for whites. The Terre Passeri range offers quality and value, especially if you are looking for wines to serve by the glass.
